

Programma
Anno scolastico: 2022 - 2023
Insegnante: Prof. Caterina Bagnato
Materia: Lingua inglese
Classe: 4^AB

Manuale in adozione: Bradfield, Wetz, "Language for life" B2, Oxford University Press (2018)
Martelli, Armellino, Nigra, Bruschi, "Lit hub", Rizzoli (2021)

Language:

- Unit 4: Home sweet home
used to/ would; past simple; be/get used to; relative clauses; reduced relative clauses;
any/-ever for free choice; factors for happiness;
- Unit 5: Big future
Future perfect and future continuous; future forms: review; future time clauses; zero, 1st,
2nd conditional: review;
Figures and trends; looking ahead;
- Unit 6: Opportunity!
Wish / if only; 3rd and mixed conditional; advice and obligation: review; past modals;
Regrets; managing problems;
- Unit 7: Post-industry
One/ones; get/have: causative verbs; active and passive verb forms;
Industry; verbs from adj./nouns;

Literature:

Unit 4: The Restoration and the Augustan age

Historical, cultural and literary context

- Daniel Defoe: life and works
From “Robinson Crusoe”: Robinson considers his condition
- Jonathan Swift: life and works
From “Gulliver’s travels”: Human achievements

Unit 5: The Romantic age

Historical, cultural and literary context

- William Wordsworth: life and works
“I wandered lonely as a cloud”
- Samuel Taylor Coleridge: life and works
From “The rime of the ancient mariner”: Water, water everywhere
- Second generation of Romantic poets: general features

The gothic novel: main features

- Mary Shelley: life and works
From “Frankenstein”: “A thing such as even Dante could not have conceived”
- Edgar Allan Poe: life and works
From “The fall of the house of Usher”: Roderick’s death

The novel of manners: main features

- Jane Austen: life and works
From “Pride and prejudice”: “Mr. And Mrs. Bennet”

Rivoli li, giugno 2023

Gli studenti

L’insegnante

Prof. ssa Caterina Bagnato